

Roots Run Deep

African American History Tours in

Frederick County

Site 1: Mount Zion Cemetery, 500 N Buckton Rd (Rt 842) Middletown, VA 22645; 39.03510 N, 78.25790 W

Site 2: Senseney Avenue, 7801-7811 Senseney Ave, Middletown, VA 22645; 39.03079 N, 78.27861 W

Site 3: Belle Grove, 336 Belle Grove Rd, Middletown, VA 22645; 39.02083 N, 78.30377 W; <https://bellegrove.org/>

Site 4: Locust Grove Cemetery, 5300 Grove Street, Stephens City, VA; 39.08725 N, 78.21980 W

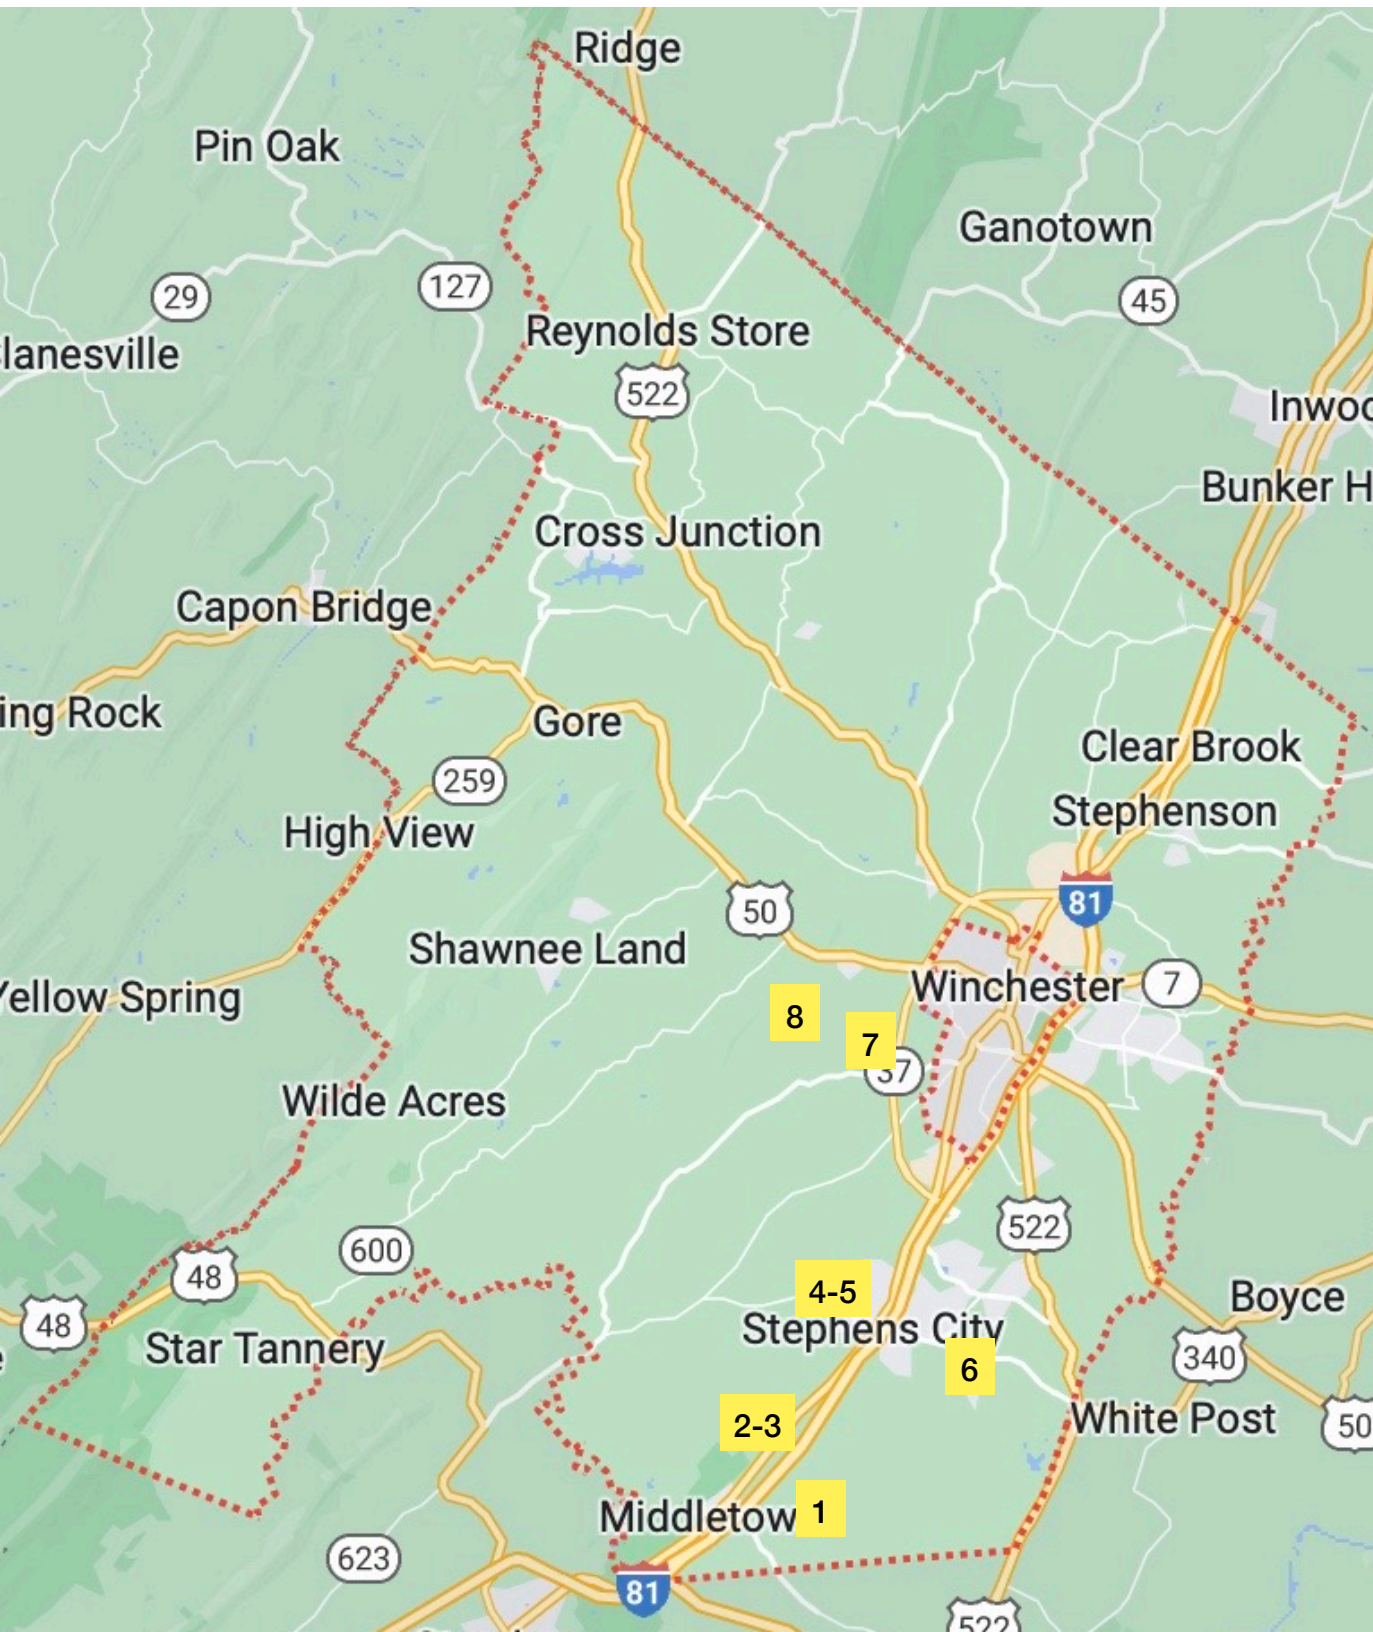

Site 5: Rosenwald School, NE of Corner of Grove and Martin Streets, Stephens City, VA 22655; 39.08618 N, 78.22102 W
Private residence

Site 6: Freetown/Crossroads, Once located at the intersection of Fairfax Pike (VA 277) and Double Church Road, Stephens City, VA 22655; 39.08082 N, 78.20338 N

Site 7: Tokes Inn, 200 block Miller Road, Winchester, VA 22602; 39.16024 N, 78.24709 W

Site 8: Sarah Brown House (The Farm at Buck Hill), 820 Singhass Road, Winchester, VA 22602; 39.17564 N, 78.25688 W
Private property

Many sites are no longer standing and/or are on private land. In some cases we specify no stopping but in all instances we ask that all sites are respected and all state and local trespassing rules obeyed.

Frederick County

Site 3: Belle Grove Plantation

Site 5: Rosenwald School

An African American History Tour

So much of our African American History has been lost. Historic churches, homes and early businesses were lost to Urban Renewal. Early communities lost their home places because of Jim Crow's laws and the Great Depression. Black farmers were unable to get the same support from the Federal Government that white farmers received. This tour reflects those losses.

Site 2: Senseney Avenue

Site 6: Freetown

Site 4: Locust Grove Cemetery

Roots Run Deep

African American History Tours in the Shenandoah Valley

Site 7: Tokes Inn

This tour is possible through the generous financial support of the following: National Trust for Historic Preservation's Telling the Full History Preservation Fund, with support from National Endowment for the Humanities. (Any views, findings, conclusions or recommendations expressed in this publication do not necessarily represent those of the National Trust or the National Endowment for the Humanities.) Virginia Humanities SHARP grant, The Jerome L. Greene Foundation, in memory of Sister Judith Brown, as recommended by Karen Brooks Hopkins, Crescent Cities Charities, and Special thanks to the Friends of the SVBHP for their monthly donations. Please support our projects, donate today. <https://valleyblackheritage.org/donate.html>

Go to www.valleyblackheritage.org & www.rootsrundeep.org to learn more.